EYE ON DESIGN 2017

Luxe's compendium of local design, with the people, homes and trends that are defining regional style—from architecture and interiors to materials and landscaping.

ON THE COVER: For an outdoor space of a Los Angeles home, designers Amy Kehoe and Todd Nickey dressed it with a pair of Serena & Lily poufs. Architect Amelia Stephenson updated the ranch-style residence, giving it an open, loft-like feel. Page 213

Joining the sculptural Ron Arad coffee table in the living room of a Pacific Palisades house—with interiors crafted by designer Annette English—is a vintage green ceramic lamp and a dramatic Ironies light fixture from Kneeder-Fauchère. They give visual weight to the space, keeping the generous volume of the room from becoming too overwhelming.
